

The Social Side

Bells in the northern valley ringing.
Could I but feel again, could I but know The charm that once such mellow notes were bringing.
So long ago.

Whist these gray winter mists are grimly creeping Strangely now a sound recalls across the years Love, longing and regret that have been sleeping
And even tears.

Those southern bells, over still waters pealing.
The russet sails, the evening's blue gleam And voices that are silent here are stealing
Into my dream.

How at a memory the heart is aching!
What was half pleasure then is wholly pain.
And yet we turn and hide our faces at the walking To dream again. —St. Paul's.

One of the most pleasant events that ever occurred in Bethany, a town long famed for its lavish hospitality and elegant entertainment, was the reception given by Col. W. H. Nave and wife at Phillips Hall, on Wednesday evening last, which brought together a most congenial party. It was in a measure in celebration of Colonel Nave's avowal to henceforth enjoy the privileges of citizenship, and all the social advantages pertaining thereto. The function was delightfully informal and most heartily enjoyed by all who were fortunate enough to have a welcome extended to them.
Among the guests present were: W. P.
Campbell and wife; Dr. W. M. Simpson and wife; T. H. Buchanan and wife; George C. Curtis and wife; Dr. B. F.
Harden and wife; J. E. Curtis and wife; Misses Nettie Strobel, May McCracken, Daisy Baker, Della Snyder, Lula Man-gum, Mamie Lydick, Annie Brown, Helen Lowry, and Miss Grace Irwin of Newark, Ohio; Messrs. Guy Pryor, Will Heburn, John Gillespie, C. H. Henderson, Alfred Newman, Joe Balzer, Ralph Pryor, Joe Howe and Earl Surgenon.

Dr. Reed Baird and son, with Mr.
Alex. Mitchell and family returned Sunday evening from a very enjoyable coaching trip, embracing the mountains of West Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania. The journey was made for easy stages and was of the most delightful character. The start was made from Washington, Pa., and the towns they visited in the itinerary were successively Waynesburg, Pa., Morgantown, Terra Alta, Kingwood, Aurora, Gorman, Mayaville, Petersburg, Howard's Lick, Moorefield and Romney.
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nave and family were in the party, and the trip was most enjoyable.

John Frow and wife; L. E. Sands and wife; M. F. Glessey and wife; F. F.
Faris and wife; Walker L. Pringle and W. P. Campbell II, of Wheeling.

Col. A. Campbell and wife; Alexander P. Campbell; Dr. J. J. Barclay, Hon. Lynn Rodgers, Miss Lizzie Rodgers, Mrs. Lizzie K. Wooley, Misses Annie Wooley and Ida Taylor, President J. M. Kersey and wife; Professor Wynne and wife; Professor H. S.
Green and wife; Professor R. C. Danrunt; Professor R. H. Munro and wife, and Mrs. Kraft, of Bethany.

Mrs. C. H. Beall, Miss Virginia and James Beall, Joshua Gies, of Brockton, Mass.; Mrs. C. and Miss Virginia Hagerman, of Lexington, Ky.; Mrs.
Elizabeth Miller, of Louisiana; Mrs.
Nida Barclay, of Oregon; Mrs. L. S.
Smith, of St. Louis, Mo.; Miss Mary Gardner, of Ohio; Miss Bessie Rose-borough, of Mississippi.

After the guests had assembled in the parlor, Colonel Nave and his wife, in a brief and felicitous manner welcomed them. Incidentally he made some allusions to his early life in Missouri, his college days and later residence at Bethany, at Tarrytown, New York, and Missouri again, and then the providential way which led up to the purchase of Point Breeze. Some very pleasant remarks were made as to the ownership of the place by Alexander Campbell, the founder of the college, and the later owner, Alexander II. His declaration of citizenship and his future home at Point Breeze produced a pleasurable sensation among his guests and warm applause followed.

At the close of his remarks, which were a surprise to many, the dainty little daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Nave came forward and presented a rather formidable looking card to Mr. Alex. P. Campbell, on behalf of her father and mother. The recipient, naturally bashful, was more than confused at the sudden prominence he was made to take in the affair. He sides he was suspicious of some joke being perpetrated on him and for a time declined to open the package.
When the contents were finally revealed, to his great surprise, was a weak word to describe his conflicting emotions, for held up before him was an elaborate gold watch, suitably inscribed, with a handsome chain attached.
"Alex" was completely overcome and his father, Colonel Alex. Campbell, made a happy response in his behalf.

About 9 o'clock the dancing began and was thrown open and the guests sat down to a palatable repast, prepared by Mrs. C. Spield, the well-known caterer.
After the winds had been discussed the remainder of the evening was spent in social converse, interspersed with a piano solo by Mrs. Nave, vocal solos by Mrs. Fred. Faris, of Maryland, and Lennie K. Wooley, of Bethany, and choice selections rendered by the Wellburg orchestra.

On Thursday the Darrah family reunion was held at Finney's orchard, west of Martin's Ferry. There was a large attendance and the occasion

North Main street, are visiting Mrs.
Greenlee's mother at Bridgeport, W.
Va.

A very pleasant surprise was tendered Miss Grace Lydick of South Chapline street, Thursday evening, by her friends in honor of her birthday. Games and music, combined with other amusements, were freely indulged in. Among those present were the following:
Misses Nettie Strobel, May McCracken,
Daisy Baker, Della Snyder, Lula Man-
gum, Mamie Lydick, Annie Brown, Helen Lowry, and Miss Grace Irwin of Newark, Ohio; Messrs. Guy Pryor, Will

father in the drug business, will leave with his bride today on a trip to Niagara Falls and the lakes.

One of the notable weddings occur-ing on Wednesday was that in which the principals were Mr. Frank J.
Gaus, traveling salesman for the John W. Herbert Company, and a member of council from the Sixth ward, and Miss Mary Osborne, daughter of Mr.
George Osborne, of South Chapline street. The wedding was a quiet affair, solemnized at the residence of Rev. Joseph Speers, of the Second Presbyterian church, who performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Gaus went west on their wedding trip.

Rev. Martin W. Buck, on Tuesday evening, married Miss Emma Padgett, of this city, to Mr. George Churchfield, of Wells, Pa., at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Churchfield, after the ceremony left on a trip to Atlantic City and eastern cities, and on their return will reside at Wells.

J. H. Eger, are visiting relatives in Woodfield and Cadiz.

Miss Grace Irwin, of Newark, Ohio, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Mary E. Connel, of the Island.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Chew and daughter, Miss Ella, have returned from Mackinac.

Misses Anna Shaw, Clara Wallace and Mary McDonald left yesterday for a visit of several weeks at Cautauqua, N.
Y.

Mrs. Rebecca Cline and daughter, Aggie, returned from their northern outing last night.

Mr. John Waterhouse is at Mountain Lake Park, having driven there overland this week. Mrs. Waterhouse and daughters, and Mr. and Mrs. John J.
Coniff complete the party now there.

The second of the F. W. Baumer Company's planola records occurred yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the large, pretty music room, and attracted another large and delighted audience of music lovers. Mr. William Kennedy presided at the instrument. The records will continue every Friday morning at the same hour.

Mrs. F. C. H. Schwartz, Miss Helena Schwartz, and Mr. and Mrs.
Charles Aul, of the Island, form a party of Wheeling people sojourning at Congress Lake, Ohio.

Last evening at his parents' home, Mr. Robert McLean entertained a number of his friends.

AT THE CAMP GROUNDS.

Social Doings are Suspended Until the Close of the Religious Meetings.
Incidents of the Week.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

MOONSVILLE CAMP GROUNDS, August 18.—More people are now on the grounds now than ever before this summer, and while the general appearance of the place is one of activity, yet perfect quiet reigns, and every one is on his good behavior.

The meetings have been extensively advertised, more so than for several years past, and the indications are that on preparation are being made for the accommodation of large crowds.

All doings of a social nature have been suspended until the close of the religious meetings, which are being held at the grounds of every one on the grounds.

Everything is now in first class condition. The grounds have been beautified and made otherwise attractive, and the effect is very pleasing.

The ladies of the association decorated the grounds yesterday with plants and flowers. The place presents a beautiful appearance, and speaks well for the artistic taste possessed by the ladies.

Tuesday evening Miss Helen Perkins entertained the Ideal Mandolin and Guitar Club, of Wheeling, and several of her friends. About thirty were in the party, and they spent a very pleasant evening with music and various social diversions. At the usual hour refreshments were served.

Mrs. William Brooks and Miss Jessie Dean returned from Mountain Lake Park Tuesday, and will remain until after the meetings.

Mr. M. B. Helms and family, of Cameron, moved to their cottage in the park Wednesday.

Mr. West Thompson and wife, of Wheeling, moved to their cottage on the grounds during the week.

Joe Thompson, who has been ill for some time, with typhoid fever, is able to be about.

Mrs. John Conway, of Martin's Ferry, was the guest of her sister, Miss Shary Conway, during the week.

Mrs. Evans, of Wheeling Island, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Jeffers, Wednesday.

Mrs. M. Jeffers and family, of Wheeling, moved to the grounds during the past week.

William Travis Jr., and mother are the guests of relatives on the grounds.
Mrs. Harry A. Watkins and son Charles, of Wheeling Island, are spending a few days as the guests of Mrs. C. H. Watkins.

Stewart, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks, about whose illness an evening paper had a very sensational story, is now able to be out, after a slight illness of a few days.

Mrs. E. L. Stone, of Wheeling Island, arrived on the grounds Wednesday, and will stay until after the meetings are over.

Mrs. Ella Miller and daughter, Miss Mamie, of Wheeling, are the guests of her mother, Mrs. McMasters.

Miss Mildred Wright, of Wheeling Island, is the guest of Miss Bessie Ul-lum.

Wednesday evening was the thirtieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. M. Jeffers, and that evening a number of their friends tendered them a very pleasant repast, using for musical instruments in piano and other melodious instruments. Mr. and Mrs.
Jeffers were taken wholly by surprise, but soon recovered, and invited the enchanters in. After some social conversation, Mrs. W. H. Chapman, on behalf of the ladies, presented Mrs. Jeffers with a choice bouquet of cut flowers.
The affair was a very happy one, and gotten up on short notice was a pronounced success.

Mr. Arthur Carrick, of Cleveland, was the guest of the Misses Chapman during the week.

Mrs. Loper, of Wheeling Island, was the guest of Mrs. McMasters during the week.

T. H. Jones, of Chicago, was the guest during the week of his father-in-law, Mr. W. H. Chapman.

Wednesday evening the children had a hay-ride. This was their last ride, and they determined to enjoy it, which they did to the fullest extent. About fifty were in the party, and they spent a very enjoyable evening, until 10 o'clock, riding around the surrounding country. On their return they partook of refreshments.

Mrs. Evans and daughter, Miss Bessie, of Wheeling, were the guests during the week of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jeffers.

Superintendent of Mails Jack Cowie is spending his vacation with his family, at their cottage, in the park.

Miss Nellie Shafer, of Wheeling, will stop here on her return from Marietta, the first of the week, and will be the guest of Miss Helen Perkins for several days.

Miss Ethel Montgomery, of Wheeling, is spending several days as the guest of Miss Della Wells.

Mrs. Jessie Wilson and son, Howard, of Wheeling, are spending several days as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jeffers.

Miss Lou Hastings, of Wheeling, will spend Sunday as the guest of Miss Helen Perkins.

Ben Jacobs, of Wheeling, will spend Sunday with friends on the grounds.

Mr. Harry A. Watkins will spend Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs.
C. H. Watkins.

HERE AND THERE.

Oh, why no word of the summer girl—
In all the season's merry whirl—Oh, why no note of her coming year?
Has she gone the way of the kissing-bush?

It was not thus in the recent days.
When she posed a focus for enraptured gaze.
And mainly bosoms were fractured sore;
When a sea-side queen she cut a swath Of broken hearts in her rearward part.
Yet the smitten swains still sighed for more.

How the papers told her dazling charms.
And pictured the host of entrancing arms
As she proudly strode athwart the beach.
But alas for her glory of the past,
Her triumph, joys and homages past,
She has flickered far from modern reach.

Is it because of the summer man, The festive youth, with the ducks and tan.
No more she yields her sceptered sway?
Even the sea serpent's awful tangle—Oh, bring back the dame, they plead and pray.

A summer spent away from the heat and noise of the town need not be expensive, unless your summer pilgrim feels satisfied with nothing less than being in the swim of society. But to

THE COLORED METHODISTS.

A Session of Their Conference Held at Cresap's Grove.

The second day's session of the colored Methodist conference was held at Cresap's Grove, down the river, to which an excursion was run on the steamer Leroy. The grove was reached at noon, and the conference session began at 11:45 a. m.,
